

PTTEP

Daily Stock picks

The global crude oil prices have temporarily recovered after slowing down due to concerns about the economic recession. However, it is expected that OPEC's decision to further cut output in May will boost crude oil prices. This is positive for speculators who are interested in investing in upstream energy stocks.

Strategic TP THB170

AT THE OPEN(#ATO) Sideways

Swing on earnings & econ data

We anticipate the SET will remain in a sideways movement, with a support level of 1,550 points and a resistance level of 1,570 points. Our ATO picks for today are 'PTTEP' and 'BRR', which have strong potential for earnings growth.

Daily Stock picks

The company is benefiting from a significant increase in global sugar prices, which have reached a new high in 11 years due to accelerated demand and reduced supply from India. Additionally, the wood pellet project to extend the New S Curve, which is expected to begin in the second half of 2023, should further boost earnings.

The market is currently waiting for earnings and economic data reports to be released at the end of the week: Overall, the shortterm investment outlook suggests that the market still lacks new catalysts to support further movement. As a result, the index is expected to fluctuate within a narrow range amid thin trading volume. This week, major listed companies around the world are set to release their earnings reports, including Pepsi, GM, GE, McDonald's, Microsoft, UBS on Tuesday, Boeing and Meta on Wednesday, and Amazon, Intel, Mastercard, Barclays, etc. on Thursday. In Thailand, HMPRO and SCGP will report earnings on Tuesday, SCC on Wednesday, and BH, ITC, PTTEP, SCCC, etc. on Thursday. With all these expectations, we recommend that investors focus on accumulating stocks with a strong earnings growth outlook that can withstand a relatively difficult market. Regarding important economic data, it is recommended to keep an eye on the Thai exports report, which will be released on Wednesday. Additionally, at the end of the week, it is important to follow the US 1Q23 GDP, which is expected to grow by +2.0% QoQ, and the Eurozone 1Q23 GDP, which is expected to grow by +1.4% YoY and +0.2% QoQ. The US PCE report, which is expected to show a +4.1% YoY increase, should not be missed on Friday. All of this information will be important in considering the Fed's monetary policy decision at its May 3 meeting.
